Tom Prentice honoured

Tom Prentice was selected the Highlander of the Year at the Chamber of Commerce annual meeting banquet held Wednesday evening at Wig-A-Mog Inn.

Presentation of the award was made by businessman Ken Fielding who praised Tom's involvement in many activities throughout the county, especially those which attracted visitors to the area.

Tom's active involvement in the community stretches back over many years and includes a broad spectrum of activities. One of the most prominent is as the driving force behind the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association. He has served as president of the organization for a number of years and has helped steer it through turbulent times as the provincial government withdrew trail funding support.

Tom has also been actively involved in the car racing on ice that has placed Minden on a regular winter circuit. Many of the participants have expressed appreciation for the facilities available in Minden, mostly due to the efforts of Tom Prentice.

The 1983 Highlander of the year is also an active member of the Minden Kinsmen Club, an organization for which he has served as president.

Tom has been involved with the Minden Recreation Committee, Minden Minor Hockey, the Masonic Lodge, the Haliburton County Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, the Chamber and the Minden United Church.

His selection as Highlander of the year was greeted by the audience with a standing ovation.

Tom Prentice, left, accepts the Highlander of the Year award from Ken Fielding. The presentation was made at the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner Wednesday evening.

Honourary membership

The Chamber also paid tribute to one of its long standing members who retired from business this year. Eileen Crawford, the owner and operator of Hart Lodge, until this spring when the business was sold, was awarded an honourary membership in the Chamber.

In making the presentation, former Chamber manager Bob Stinson pointed out that Eileen had been a member of the Chamber since its inception and had been an active promoter of the Haliburton Highlands.

The recipient of the award was unable to attend the meeting to accept the plaque. She was on holidays.

Chamber elects new board

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce has a new board of directors. The new board was elected at the organization's annual meeting held October 19 at Wig-A-Mog Inn.

Elected to the board were the following incumbent members: George Schmid, Jack MacGregor, John Stainton, Alan Bagg, Wendy Ramsay, Ken Langdon and Bob Jennings. Others elected to the board include: Shawn Hagerman, Pauline Baumgartner, Emily Skinner, Albert Foster and Brian Adamson. Past president Rhonda Elstone will also serve on the board for another term.

The election was the culmination of a busy day of activities which saw seminars, discussion groups, speakers and reports being offered for chamber members.

Dennis Casey chaired the annual meeting, commenting that he was pleased with the large turnout of members. In presenting the slate of candidates he pointed out that the board had been unable to attract potential board members from the eastern portion of the county.

While the votes were being tabulated, outgoing president of the Chamber Rhonda Elstone presented a combined president's and manager's report. The Chamber was without a manager at the time having dismissed the previous manager.

Elstone reviewed the marketing programs and successes of the year's activities. She noted that two promotional ideas, the shop and deal program and the Harvest Festival were less than enthusiastically accepted. She said the future of these programs has yet to be decided.

Re-organization failed

Commenting on the re-organization of the chamber operation which took place earlier this year Elstone noted, "It looked like a good idea at the time. We were attempting to share the workload, to expand into new areas."

The outgoing president admitted that the change just didn't work. "I can't point to any one particular reason why it didn't work out," Elstone said, "I can only ask you to bear with us while we try and iron out our problems."

Nuclear weapons ban plea rejected by county council

Haliburton County Council has voted against making this area a nuclear weapons-free zone. The vote came at the October 19 meeting as the council was asked to endorse a resolution presented by the Haliburton County People for Peace Committee.

Louise Watson spoke on behalf of the organization. She told the council that the committee had held a meeting in August in Minden. At that time those in attendance unanimously endorsed a resolution calling for the county to be declared nuclear weapons-free. The group also suggested that the resolution be forwarded to county council for endorsement.

Watson commented on several aspects of nuclear weapons production including the present world stock pile of nuclear arms represents an explosive force 5000 times greater than all the munitions used during World War Two. She noted that on the average, the world spends 1.3 million dollars per minute for military purposes, "while children are dying for want of food and inexpensive vaccines."

She told the meeting that Canada profited by the export of arms, including the sale of $300 million to the United States and $200 million to other nations.

Watson told the meeting, "I do not want to become a politial activist. I just feel very strongly about nuclear weapons and I don't want to see my country and home devastated by them." She suggested that if more municipalities became nuclear-free, the country would soon be rid of the weapons.

First to respond was Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey. He noted it was "hard to argue against" the case made by the representative of the peace organization. "We are all concerned about nuclear weapons," he commented. He described the action recommended by the group as "a slap in the face to Canada's closest ally, the United States." He suggested that Canada should not tell the U.S. to be in second place, allowing the Russians to win the arms race. He also questioned whether the county had the statutory right to declare the area a nuclear weapons-free zone.

Lutterworth Deputy Reeve Glynne Lewis asked Watson if her group had made contact with a similar organization behind the Iron Curtain. Watson said her group hadn't, but noted that Dr. Clarke MacDonald, Moderator of the United Church of Canada, who had addressed the summer meeting, had attempted to establish contact with a similar group. "I'm sure the Russian people are in sympathy with our efforts," she commented.

Lewis then questioned how much say the Russian people have in the policies of their government. "The people who are making the policies in Russia don't listen to their public," he added. The deputy reeve said the Russian government had done more to create problems throughout the world through terrorism and declared that until there is substantial peace contacts with the Russians he would not support the resolution.

Snowdon Reeve Bob Vick declared that he was against war but he felt that Canada could not stand alone in the world. He suggested that the peace movement could be controlled by Russian spies. He said his comments were not directed at the local group.

Sherborne Deputy Reeve Don Shortreed said that Canada had to fulfill its share of responsibilities as a member of NATO.

Stanhope Reeve Harry Davis said he could appreciate the feelings of the organization. He suggested however, that a resolution seeking total nuclear disarmament would probably receive a more hearty endorsement.

The motion to support the resolution endorsed by the Haliburton County People for Peace Committee was lost on a vote of ten against seven for and one abstention. Voting for the resolution were: Stanhope Reeve Harry Davis; Stanhope Deputy Reeve Elgin Stouffer; Sherborne et al Reeve Dalton MacDonald; Anson, Hindon and Minden Reeve Lyle McKnight; Anson, Hindon and Minden Deputy Reeve Ed Pergolas; Lutterworth Reeve Ron Gambell; and Cardiff Reeve Mack Peters.

Two passengers injured

A driver and passenger were treated for minor injuries following a single car accident on Highway 35 south of Minden. The mishap occurred in the early morning hours of October 22.

According to police, the vehicle being driven by 25 year old Timothy Rainey swerved across the highway as he attempted to negotiate a curve. The vehicle drove along the opposite shoulder for a short period before veering across the highway again and rolling over into the northbound ditch.

The driver and passenger, 24 year old John Czako of Bradford were taken to Minden Red Cross Hospital for treatment of minor injuries. The car sustained $2000 damages.

The matter was investigated by Constable Mike Legge.

Roll over

Damage to a truck which rolled over in a ditch on County Road One in Snowdon Township was estimated at $4,000 by the authorities. The truck was being driven by Glenn Jennings, 19 of Tottenham when the accident occurred Sunday afternoon.

The mishap was investigated by Constable Ken Wesley.

Sentenced

Five - three month concurrent jail terms were handed down to Robert Blair Clement when he appeared in Provincial Court recently. The 21 year old from Nestleton had been charged with breaking into cottages in the Kennisis Lake, Little Kennisis Lake area earlier this month. He had been living in the cottages, enjoying the food and beverages left behind by the owners. He was arrested after he had been found in one cottage by a returning owner.

Foster parents wanted: long hours, hard work, great rewards.

Being a foster parent is a tough job. It's full-time. Twenty-four hours a day. Often frustrating, and always demanding of your patience, energy and love.

Yet despite its demands, or maybe because of them, thousands of people take foster children into their homes each year.

Some are children, some are teenagers. Some have special physical or emotional needs. But all have one thing in common. They need a sense of place and security to help them through a difficult period in their lives, and to prepare them for reuniting with their families.

There's a very basic joy in sharing with a child or young person some of the richness that life has given you.

As part of a team of social workers and other professionals, you'll be helping foster children and their parents when they need help most. And helping yourself at the same time, to mature and grow as an individual.

If you'd like to learn more about becoming a foster parent, contact your local Children's Aid Society or Family and Children's Services.

It's not an easy task. Few jobs demand more of a person. But fewer still give more in return.

Councillors offer flood plain policies rebuttal

Two members of Anson, Hindon and Minden municipal council are obviously not pleased with the efforts of the provincial government to force a flood plain policy on the community of Minden. The two, councillors Dave Stevens and Gary Kenney attended a hearing of a special committee commissioned by the Ontario Legislature to review the provincial flood plain management policies. The meeting was held Thursday evening in Lindsay.

The report prepared by the two councillors is subtitled, 'comments for discussion'. It slashes out at some of the basic underlying policies of the provincial flood plain management program saying that local needs and priorities are being swept aside for expediency sake. The report also suggests that the provinces use of the one in 100 year flood or the regional flood ignores local conditions which will have an impact on any flood condition.

The report accuses the government of moving away from its own stated principal with regard to flood plain management and as a result "the policies clearly overstep the bounds of reasonable intervention in the private affairs of Ontario property owners."

The councillors state in their document that "if the province sincerely wished to acknowledge all relevant social, economic, physical and environmental factors, it could never have arrived at the neatly prepackaged formula that alleges it can address the individuality of each provincial watershed area." The report notes, for example, that direct intervention in watershed control by the Trent-Severn Authority and the Orillia Light and Power, "adds a dimension of instability that highlights the unique nature of our flood plain management requirements." It is also suggested the reservoir lakes are used to prevent flooding in the Kawarthas. "Could it be that our watershed acts as a blotter to absorb Kawartha flood risk, and store Trent-Severn volume needs as first priorities?" the report asks.

The councillors also accuse the government of using Orders in Council and avoiding public debate and scrutiny in developing its policies. They point out that this is in direct opposition to the announced intention to have the policies developed, "in a manner which promotes public understanding and acceptance."

Use of the one in 100 year flood or the regional flood as criteria for determining an area's potential for damage removes all flexibility from the planning process, the report states. It notes that a storm in Timmins is used as the criteria for flood restrictions here even though the two areas are hundreds of miles apart.

It is also pointed out that there is no reasonable avenue for appeal other than an Ontario Municipal Board hearing or other formal court which is both costly and takes a great deal of time to complete.

The question is also raised as to who should be responsible for the loss in value both to the individual property owners and the tax base, when a flood plain policy is implemented. The councillors suggest that administering the flood plain policies will be almost as expensive as the results of floods it is meant to protect against. "The cure can sometimes be far more devastating than the disease," the report states.

The report concludes with four recommendations:

- Each watershed must be treated individually. "Mathematics and computer models cannot take the place of site specific examinations."

- "Flood plain policies must allow development decisions that reflect the interests and priorities of local ratepayers and their elected officials." The report calls on the province to acknowledge the 125 years of commitment and investment made in the village. The flood plain policies, "erode local government responsibility and leave in their wake a miserable task of enforcing against one's fellow ratepayers a stringent set of controls and interferences that were compiled by strangers."

- "Full compensation must be made in cases of loss of property value due to implementation of any flood plain management policy, whether that loss is realized by an individual property owner or a municipality with a loss in tax revenue."

- An easy, "no cost" method of appealing the policies must be created. It is unfair that an individual must use his own resources to defend what he feels is right while the provincial government collects taxes used to make the case against the individual.

Trapper policy opposed

A new policy being proposed by the Ministry of Natural Resources could put trappers, private land owners and local councils in a "leg hold trap", according to an assessment offered by Dysart et al reeve Murray Fearrey. Speaking at the October 19 meeting of Haliburton County Council, Fearrey described the new policy as an attack of the rights of private property owners and the free enterprise initiative of trappers.

The policy which drew the reaction was a recently announced private lands fur management program, outlined in a letter from MNR Minden District Manager Don White. According to the letter, the proposed policy will be implemented for the 1984 - 85 trapping season.

Fearrey felt that the policy was enough of a threat that he convinced county council that a special meeting should be held, sponsored by the county, to examine its ramifications. The meeting has been slated for tomorrow evening (October 27) at the Legion Hall in Haliburton Village.

According to the letter from the District Manager, the policy has been designed to limit the number of trappers within one of four special units established within the Minden District. "The continued increase in trappers has resulted in severe and unnecessary competition for trapping areas," the official wrote. He also noted that new trapper training programs will produce even more trappers.

Within the four management units, a limit will be set on the number of trappers based on the amount of

New board

She told the meeting that board member John Stainton had been hired as interim manager. He will serve probably until January of next year. While working as the manager he will not be a voting member of the Chamber's Board of Directors.

Commenting on a point she had made at an earlier meeting with members of the Minden Area Tourist Association (MATA), Elstone said her idea of inviting representation from localized tourist promotion bodies has been endorsed by the Chamber's board of directors.

"It will not weaken the Chamber of Commerce," Elstone told the meeting, "It should strengthen it. Afterall the Chamber cannot be all things to all people." She said the mechanics of including representatives from these various groups on the board of directors had not been ironed out but that she expected the end result would be a wider representation on the board. "Then we can go forward, concentrating on promoting the county as a whole," Elstone said.

The outgoing president acknowledged that tourism promotion was a major part of the Chamber's activities. However, she noted a Chamber of Commerce is also a lobby group for business, offering one voice when speaking to government or in promoting the rights of the business community.

Elstone concluded by saying, "If the Chamber is not saying and doing what you want it to, perhaps it is because you are not talking to it."

Contributions lost

A number of area politicians are angry and we don't blame them.

The target of their wrath is the special committee commissioned by the Ontario Legislature to review the Provincial Flood Plain Management policies or, more correctly, those responsible for notifying councils of the hearings.

Lutterworth Reeve Ron Gambell is upset because his council did not receive notification of a meeting of the commission in Lindsay in time to prepare a proper response. Anson, Hindon and Minden council was in the same position and while two members of council did attend the commission hearing, they did not present a formal brief. (They have since prepared a rebuttal "discussion paper" in response to the proposed policies.)

Considering all the hoops the provincial government, via the Ministry of Natural Resources, has been putting these two municipalities through over flood plain policies, they deserve a better break than what they received. Both have had to revise and delay new zoning by-laws, face the potential loss of tax revenue and property values and generally dance to the tune called by the province or see development grind to a halt.

After all these municipalities have been through there is little doubt they would be eager to comment to the Legislative commission. However, due to a lack of communication, these two bodies were not allowed to participate. That is a shame, because we feel their contribution would have been valuable.

Hear, hear

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce has made an excellent selection for the 1983 Highlander of the Year.

In Tom Prentice they have found an individual with the right mixture of drive, tenacity and enthusiasm. All these qualities are necessary to ensure the successful completion of any undertaking especially when cynicism and apathy are often the only responses.

Tom has proven that hard work and persistence pay off. Minden and Haliburton County are richer for his efforts.

Editor:

Would someone there be able to help me with a search for information about a family with the name of Conway and also the family name of Brown?

First of all Brown - John Brown - he had 9 daughters and two sons - next his daughter is Gladys (Brown) Conway. She is a resident now of Central Park Lodge, and has been, for around 5 years. She told me her mother and father (John) opened the first General Store in Minden.

Nora, Mrs. Conway, must be approaching her middle nineties! I have known Mrs. Conway, say 30 years - but of course, age never enters in - out of the great respect for a very fine lady. Why should it, anyway?

Would there be any pictures available of the first General Store, for sale? I believe, according to Mrs. Conway, they left Minden, when she was 9 years old.

Now, this information I'm not quite certain about - as Mrs. Conway is not too clear - but she thought her husband, Roy Conway, also came from Minden.

Any information you can pass along for this precious lady would be so greatly appreciated.

Thank you, so much, for your help. I am most grateful.

letters letters letters letters

The following open letter was sent to Anson, Hindon and Minden Deputy Reeve Ed Pergolas who is also a member of the Haliburton County Road Committee.

Dear Mr. Pergolas:

I am writing to express my concerns as well as the concerns of many others who live in the close proximity of the Ingoldsby bridge.

First, I would like to stress that I am well aware that the present bridge is in poor repair and that something needs to be done to remedy this situation. However, the present plans to replace the present single lane bridge with a much larger and wider structure leads to many problems. The problem stated in the local papers regarding boat clearance is only one of many problems this new proposed structure and the necessary approaches will inflict on the members of the community in the immediate area around the bridge.

At present the overall plans to build this bridge as well as the highway leading to and from it will lead to the anihiliation of much of the original community. The property owners (with the exception of Mr. Curtin) in the approximate half mile in question have not been given any concrete information as to what the proposed bridge and highway will do to their property. What is going to happen to the large trees, etc. that were planted by our parents? What type of highway are they planning for this core area of our community? Will everything be flattened to make way for this new bridge and highway, or will curbing be used to preserve the original trees and property?

Another area of major concern is the safe sandy beach on the south side of the present bridge. During the summer this beach is constantly being used by a large number of permanent as well as summer residents. If the proposed bridge is installed this beach will disappear. Having swam in this area all my life, I too well realize that there will be none of the present excellent swimming area left. The balance of the channel is not suitable for safe swimming. Once construction starts on the new bridge, these families will have lost their swimming area.

Proponents of the new bridge state that the one-lane bridge is very dangerous in terms of traffic flow. I have lived near the bridge all my life and cannot recall an accident in which anyone required hospitalization. It would appear that the majority of minor accidents on the bridge were caused by excessive speed rather than the bridge itself. However, I wonder how safe the area will be when a new highway and bridge are constructed. There are many young children in this area. How safe will they be? Perhaps one reason why there haven't been any serious accidents is the fact that drivers have had to slow down for the bridge!

I feel it is very necessary to consider all aspects of this bridge fully before making any definite plans. This is not just a rural road; the area in question is the core of the original community. It is important that we look at all possible options before something is done that will destroy all that our parents and grandparents have worked for.

Mrs. Helen Newton,
Ingoldsby.

Army on the move

An entire Army squadron rolled through Haliburton County last week.

The 8th Canadian Hausers RECCE Squadron comprising 135 men and 40 vehicles conducted training exercises as they moved south. The purpose of the squadron is to conduct reconnaissance in advance of an army division.

This includes surveillance of airports, roads and bridges to ensure safe passage of that division.

The squadron followed the Hydro right-of-way from Camp Petawawa arriving at a temporary base camp set up north of Minden.

The advance party moved out at nightfall on Wednesday and proceeded by public highway to their final rendevous near Meaford. While here the squadron attracted a great deal of attention, especially from curious youngsters, many of whom had an opportunity to ride in one of the vehicles.

Editor:

I am writing in reply to recent requests from Mr. Pergolas regarding the proposed bridge at Ingoldsby. Providing a sound structure in good repair should ultimately be the primary concern. If maintenance and repair of the present bridge is economically inadvisable, I suggest further investigation of alternative construction methods should be pursued.

Being a Canning Lake Property Owner and a user of the only dump within hours more flexible than the maternity ward at Lindsay Hospital, I have been under the bridge and over it many times. While boating this summer, it seemed apparent that a lower structure would be unwise. It was also evident that many people enjoyed the sandy beach which would no likely be eliminated if the new proposed bridge was constructed.

The single lane aspect of the bridge makes it unique, adding character to our countryside. Safety is jeopardized by the poor approach visibility, not the fact that it is one lane. I suggest that even if it is found necessary to construct a new bridge, a single lane style might be considered. Certainly present standards of boat clearance should be maintained.

Bernie Davis,
Minden.

P.S. Mr. Curtin should be thanked for his unrelenting persistence.

Editor:

I have lived here beside this bridge for over 50 years, and I have witnessed so many near-tragedies it is hard to believe.

I know the bridge condition has badly deteriorated over the past 56 years, the support beams have rusted off underneath, the main beams are potted full of rust, the footings have deteriorated to rubble.

So, as far as I can see, there will have to be a fatal accident here involving the collapse of the bridge to get any action.

Here's hoping it isn't you.

Don Hicks,
Ingoldsby.

The Chamber of Commerce Annual Meeting and Banquet held last Wednesday at Wig-A-Mog Inn had a good turn out of members and guests. Guest speaker Prof. David Blenkhorn, enlightened listeners to the Japanese way of doing business and the importance that quality workmanship will have in the future. He also stressed the communications link between Japanese management and workers in all industries that helps to overcome work slow downs and walkouts.

After dinner speaker, John Hope-Johnstone also dealt, in part, with the "Japanese Way" of doing business when he talked about the future and the strides being made in Robotics, that is, machines to do the mundane work in factories. Both speakers were as entertaining as they were enlightening.

At the annual meeting, our new Board of Directors was elected. New faces on the Board for the coming year are: Shawn Hagerman, Emily Skinner, Albert Foster, Pauline Baumgartner and Brian Adamson. Returning for another year are George Schmid, Jack MacGregor, Alan Bagg, Wendy Ramsay, Ken Langdon, Bob Jennings, John Stainton and Rhonda Elstone.

Fire; a lost hunter's friend

While the local hunters gear up for the annual hunt, the Ontario Provincial Police prepare for the event that some of them may become lost. And that search could involve police aircraft, canine teams and countless personnel.

All safety precautions aside, there is one rule we wish to emphasize - never venture into the bush without a source of fire. Even after you've packed the necessary maps, the compass, the first aid kit, you're still not prepared for a night in the cold, wet, dark bush. Not without a fire.

When the realization that you've become disoriented gradually takes hold and you admit to yourself that you're lost, that's the time to stop. From here on, by continuing to travel, you're only going to get in deeper. Make camp and get busy with your campfire.

A campfire will do several things for you. Firstly it will provide warmth. Your clothes are likely damp on the inside from your exertion and if it's typical fall weather you're probably wet on the outside too. It's important to get dry and to stay warm. Persons lost in cold damp weather have been known to succumb to the elements overnight due to the conditions of hypothermia.

Secondly, a fire will provide a beacon from you to your searchers. Be prepared to heap on smoke producing leaves or branches should you become aware of searchers in the area. (You should try to locate yourself in a clearing or on the shore of a lake to enable spotters from the air to find you.)

And thirdly, a campfire is a source of comfort to you. With heat you can beat back the elements. It also has the tendency to make a person fell less apprehensive about the creatures that inhabit the night. It gives you a focus for your attention and a purpose to your existence while you while away the time waiting to be found.

In summation, we strongly recommend that all hunters invest a few dollars in waterproof matches or in disposable lighters and resolve now never to venture into the bush without at least one reliable source of fire lighting equipment.

Gallery elects board

For the first time in its history, the Agnes Jamieson Gallery has an elected board of directors. The meeting to elect the new officers was held Wednesday at the gallery.

Members elected to the board include Brian Adamson, Lorrie Brown, Pat Campbell, Elizabeth Carrell, Jean Cox, Barbara Elder, Marion Lodenquai, Helen Newton, Heidi Riggenbach, Edith Sanders, Margo and Gino Ziorjen.

Meeting will discuss policy

private land in that sector. It is expected the number could range from 40 to 140. The number of trappers will be determined by MNR in consultation with local trappers and councils. The number will depend on the amount of private land, the size of the area, the fur resource available and the needs of area trappers.

The ministry suggests that trappers form a group within each unit to present their opinions to the ministry.

Trappers would be permitted to trap in only one of the four management units. Those trapping in more than one unit at the time the policy comes into effect will be allowed to continue the practise as long as they remain active each season. New trappers will be assigned to one unit and will not be able to work lines in other units. Applications to trap in a unit will be accepted until the quota is filled at which time applicants will have to wait for vacancies.

"The ministry feels the establishment of the private land fur management units will provide benefits for most trappers," the ministry letter stated. "A major benefit would be that working as a group trappers would get to know one another and would be able to trap an area in a more co-operative manner. Another advantage would be that local municipalities, highway departments and landowners could contact a local group to have nuisance problems curtailed."

Fearrey disagreed with the policy's intent. He said it indicated that the MNR's trapper training program was too successful.

His major objection however, dealt with the interference with the rights of private property owners. "Owners will not be able to fully exercise their preference as to who traps the land they own," the Dysart Reeve stated. "I belive this to be an invasion of rights by the MNR and an infringement of the rights of trappers as well as the land owners.

He suggested such a policy would suppress the free enterprise initiative of trappers and questioned how trapper helpers and assistants would fit into the policy.

The members of council agreed that the issue deserved greater public scrutiny and authorized the meeting called for tomorrow evening to discuss the matter. "I hope the trappers and private land owners involved are concerned enough about this issue to attend," he commented.

Juniors into finals

The HHSS junior Redmen have advanced to the Kawartha West finals after scoring an impressive 41 - 0 win over I.E. Weldon on Thursday afternoon in Haliburton.

The junior squad played their best two way game of the season in their semi-final victory.

Mike Blake opened the scoring for the Redmen on their first offensive play, carrying the ball 65 yards for a touchdown. Glenn Hall added a point on the convert. After Peter Allore recovered a fumble Glenn Hall gained a single point on a missed field goal.

In the next quarter Mike Blake added his second touchdown after a 40 yard punt return by Mike MacNaull. The conversion boosted the score to 15 - 0 at half time.

Once again the Redmen wasted no time as they scored after their first series of plays in the second half. Mike MacNaull gained the touchdown on a 48 yard power sweep.

Still in the third quarter, John Ballantyne recovered another fumble to set up a touchdown on an 18 yard run by Paul Allore. Mike MacNaull added his second touchdown to end the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter Paul Allore became the third player to score a pair of touchdowns. The successful conversion completed the 41 - 0 shutout.

Mike MacNaull with 10 carries for 126 yards and Mike Blake who ran for 91 had their usual strong offensive game.

Chris Carl, Peter Allore and Trevor Powers led the defensive squad that completely dominated the opposition.

The championship game will be played this Thursday at 2 o'clock in Haliburton. The junior Redmen who have never won the championship will be hosting Fenelon Falls who they defeated in a previous game.

Senior game

The senior Redmen football squad were not as successful as their junior counterparts last week in their game against Brock in Cannington. The Redmen lost the game 15 - 3 in a fairly evenly matched contest. Brock opened the scoring in the first quarter when they recovered a missed snap in the Redmen end zone. A single point on a punt made the score 8 - 0 for Brock at half-time.

Paul Vuksic put Haliburton on the board with an impressive 40 yard field goal in the third quarter. However, Brock added one more TD in the fourth quarter to end the game.

The seniors will also be playing this Thursday in Haliburton for the consulation final against I.E. Weldon. Game time is 4 p.m.

Origins

Kennisis Lake

Lake Kennisis, which occupies territory in both the southwest corner of Havelock township and in the northwest corner of Guilford township is one of the many of our lakes that bears an Indian name. As is the case with Lake Paudash, Kennisis holds the name of Joe Keneses who dwelt in the woods by the lake that bears his name. Joe Keneses (or Kinnisis) belonged to one of the Chippewa tribes that inhabited this area. The Keneses' longhouse, which stood among the maples up the lake from Connors Bay, housed the family for five generations after the expulsion of the Iroquois. Joe Keneses was a popular man and was noted for his long walks back and forth to Haliburton to shop.

Pair sentenced

Jail term

A series of charges resulted in a seven month jail term and three years probation for a Dysart Township man. 19 year old Peter Austin was sentenced October 19.

The man had been charged with assault, impaired driving, drinking alcohol while on a judge's order to refrain and break, enter and theft at the Dysart municipal office.

Three months

A charge of impaired driving drew a term of three months for a Minden Township man. Delbert Dudman, 62, was convicted of impaired driving, his third offence of this kind, and sentenced October 19.

The charge was laid after a number of complaints were received about an erratic driver on Highway 35 north of Minden. The accused was also ordered to pay a fine of $200.

Two wins for Huskies

The Haliburton Northernways Huskies chalked up a pair of wins in games played on the road and at home last weekend. The Huskies travelled to Parry Sound on Friday night and came away with a 7 - 5 victory.

Parry Sound jumped into the lead with 2 quick goals midway through the first period. They added two more in the second to pull ahead 4 - 0. Scott Rae finally tallied for the Huskies and Dave Nicholls scored another just before the end of the period.

Early in the third period Tony Sheffee narrowed Parry Sound's lead to one goal. Then the Huskies exploded for 3 goals in one minute on shots by Dave Nicholls, Barry Boice and Glenn Evans. One minute later Jeff Stamp popped in another goal.

Parry Sound scored in the last minute but it wasn't enough. Scott Rae with 1 goal and 4 assists and Dave Nicholls with 2 goals and 1 assist sparked the Huskies come from behind win. The referee had an easy night handing out only seven minor penalties.

Comeback not needed

There was no need for a comeback in Saturday night's game against Essa at the Dysart Arena which Haliburton won 14 - 5. The Huskies scored 6 goals in each of the first two periods and were never behind in the game. Dave Nicholls opened the scoring for the Huskies 39 seconds after the game began.

Mike MacNaull and Glenn Evans added two more before Essa scored on a power play. Drew Bishop answered with a goal then Essa scored on their second power play. Haliburton made it 6 - 2 at the end of the first period on goals by Bernie Upton and Jeff Stamp. The Huskies completely overpowered Essa in the second period.

Jeff Stamp, John McKelvey and Scott Rae added a goal apiece before an all out attack by Haliburton. Dave Nicholls, Jeff Stamp and Tony Sheffee scored a total of 3 goals in only 39 seconds to end the second period.

The rest of the game was much more evenly matched. Jeff Stamp scored his fourth goal of the game on a pass from Dave Nicholls who had six assists.

Essa answered with a goal then Scott Rae connected for his second goal of the evening. Essa added one more to make the final score 14 - 5 for the Huskies.

Haliburton will take on Oro on Saturday at the Dysart Arena then will travel to Gravenhurst on Sunday.

Lutterworth council objects to late meeting notification

Lutterworth municipal council has taken exception to the lack of adequate notice about the Flood Plain Review Committee meet-ing held last Thursday in Lindsay. The council felt it was denied the opportunity to be represented at a public meeting held on October 20th in Lindsay through lack of adequate information and the late arrival of that information. Council instructed the Clerk to forward a strongly-worded letter to the Algonquin Regional Office of the Ministry of Natural Resources expressing Council's concern in this matter and requesting an explanation of the very limited "publicity" of the public meetings of the Flood Plain Review Committee.

Committee established

In further business Council set up a committee for the formulation of a Peace Time Emergency Plan for the Township comprised of Councillor Allan Stott and Deputy-Reeve Glynne Lewis. Council instructed the Clerk to contact the Clerk of the Municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden in order to arrange a meeting between the two committees of the respective councils.

Tender accepted

Council accepted a tender for the supplying, screening and stockpiling of 800 cubic yards of winter sand for the Municipal roadways as submitted by J.A.C. Kernohan Construction Limited at a total job price of $3,120.

Noise complaint

In the matter of a complaint about excessive noise, Council took note that there is no Township By-law coverage prohibiting "noise" levels of any specific range or nature.

Council noted that complaints of excessive noise made by neighbours in a residential area should be made to the local police authority.

Kevin Warburton, a former member of the Haliburton Huskies Junior 'C' team is making quite a name for himself in Barrie. Drafted by the Barrie Colts of the Central Ontario Junior 'B' loop, he has been playing centre for the team. The Colts lost the season opener, but won the next nine games up to last Thursday when Warburton scored the game winning goal. Warburton, 17, played with teams in the Minden and Haliburton Minor Hockey systems before joining the Huskies. He was signed by the Barrie team following try-outs this fall with the Orillia Travelways team. He is attending high school in Barrie.

Safety first

Star Wars and Superhero - types will be mingling with traditional witches, ghosts, pirates and such this Hallowe'en. Whether you are planning to create a costume for your youngsters or purchase a manufactured one, the Ontario Safety League offers a few safety tips for your consideration.

Select a costume that is a light colour and decorate it with reflective tape or fluorescent paint. Drivers will see the child more easily in the dark. Also make sure the costumes are flame-resistant and short enough that the child will not trip.

It is better to use make up to create a Hallowe'en face. However, if the child must use a mask, make sure the eye-openings are big enough to see to the sides and that it fits snugly in place without slipping.

Parents should establish ground rules for children making Hallowe'en rounds. It is a time for good, safe fun and a few rules will help keep it that way.

First, establish how far the children can go from the house, the route they will take, and the time they will be back. Young children should be accompanied by an adult; older ones should trick-or-treat in groups.

Remember, don't criss-cross the street. Call on one side of the street, then the other. Do not go inside strange houses or apartments. It is also wise to let parents check the treats before eating any.

One last tip to drivers: Despite safety instruction from both teachers and parents, Hallowe'en excitement and youthful energy sometimes gains the upper hand. Be especially watchful for ghosts and goblins when driving on the 31st.

Another week is starting here at Hyland Crest, to tell you all the happening's I'll do my best. For the service in the chapel Sunday night we don't need to worry, the Thompsons and Rev. Burgess come with his wife Mary.

Our Super is back after a 2 weeks vacation, things seem so different here when he is away. While Joan Kernohan was on a week's holiday, we had Peggy Bowman here (she is a student and working on a school program) we welcome Peggy here, she says she enjoys her work. She has lots of energy, her job she'll never shirk.

We went down to the craft room to have a cup of tea, what the ladies were doing we were glad to see. Mrs. Eastman is knitting her twentieth afghan, how she can do this is hard to understand, some are shaping ceramics, some doing the painting, some doing the spraying, all are busy, it's no place for playing. Angus Coulter works away, he just can't sit still, whatever he does, he does it with a will.

Dear members of the Minden Kinettes, it's with deepest regret I didn't attend your card game, as most of you know I'm really quite slow and have to walk with a cane.

Tuesday morning Rev. Westhaver of Minden United Church conducted the service in the chapel and brought his lovely bride. He won't be lonely now with a nice wife by his side. Fred Ballard came the music to play. We can count on Fred most any day. We won't be bothered with sea gulls any more, they tried to get the fish just a while before, the fish are put inside for the winter. Pat Ackerblade is cleaning on our floor today along with Peggy Bowman. They left our room shining which was very nice to see.

Tuesday afternoon Doris took some residents in the bus to Brady Lake. Joan Kernohan went on this trip in case some one might fall and break a leg or hip. Velma Watson and Al Smith came here Tuesday night, they played fine music and did the job just right. The music seemed to echo all through this place, from toe tapping tunes to Amazing Grace.

Wednesday morning down at fun and fitness Teddy Carr won at bowling for all to witness. The Tea Party on Thursday by the members of Haliburton L.O.B.A. we were enjoying it so much you know when we had to get up and go. We had some dear friends call, some we hadn't seen since away last fall. We thank you L.O.B.A. members and look forward when you will return to us again.

John Stewart and Ina McGuire made a quick trip to Toronto on Thursday, we really miss them both when they are away. The Thursday night Bingo was called by Tom Prentice and Doug Ripley. Tom was chosen Kinsmen of the Year which we were all glad to hear. Congratulations Tom. Linda English is taking a course for a Health Care Aide. She and nurse Bowron came with the juice cart and served us lemonade. When they had gone playing bucket ball was won by Doris Vaughan. Doris has a helper down at fun and fitness, her name is Deloris Bailey. She only comes two days a week, she can't come daily. We also have a new resident who came to Hyland Crest, her name is Agnes Lee. She comes from Tory Hill we hope that she will like it here, we are quite sure she will.

Our entertainers came Friday afternoon. Norma walked from Minden the music to play, Grace came to lead the Sing Song from just across the way. Some humorous poems she always brings and sings so nicely some of our favourite hymns.

The harvest of old age is the memory and rich store of blessing laid up earlier in life.

Club 35 news

—submitted—

Members of Club 35 enjoyed their fall dance last Saturday night.

Mr. Lou Penick and Mrs. Velda Harrison decorated the hall in Hallowe'en motif and Mrs. Penick donated a beautiful centre piece for the table.

President Bill Green greeted the dancers and handed out the door prize to winner Mrs. E. Langdon. Spot dance winners included Mr. and Mrs. Len Trodd, Mr. and Mrs. A. Neale, Mr. and Mrs. L. Penick, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pollock and Mr. and Mrs. W. Green.

Bill Donnelly was in charge of the music and the ladies of the Club served the lunch.

All the dancers are now looking forward to the New Year's Eve dance which is always one of the highlights of the Club's activities.

The one sad note of the evening was the absence of the "long - time" executive, Art Hunt, who is undergoing treatment in a Toronto Hospital. We missed you Art!

Minden W.I.

Mrs. L. Cox, presided at the October 19th meeting of Minden Women's Institute reading a verse, "the touch of a hand". Eighteen members and one guest were made welcome and had a history lesson as they had found who was Prime Minister and Governor General in the year of their birth. We were pleased to have Life Member Mrs. Fred Wright at this meeting.

Mrs. A. Coulter, brought report of 10 cards sent since last meeting and collections for this fund and Pennies for Friendship were taken.

Plans were made for our Thursday Tea of November 3 at Hyland Crest and also for the Victoria East District Craft Day at Fenelon Falls United Church Hall October 26th.

Mrs. May Spence, Convenor, gave her paper on Women's Rights and gave us much to think about and concluded with rules for women teachers in 1915. This was excellent and much appreciated.

Mrs. Cox pointed out that the November Roll Call is a small wrapped gift to be auctioned there and also a demonstration.

The resolution was read and, on a showing of hands, all supported this regarding the return of the death penalty.

The meeting adjourned and a social half hour followed with the delicious lunch served by the committee. The next meeting will be at the Library Cultural Centre Common Room on November 16 at 2 with all ladies welcome.

H.A.V.E. concert

- submitted -

At the High School on November 5 (8 p.m.) the Help A Village Effort (H.A.V.E) Committee of Haliburton County will present its Haliburton Artists Variety Evening. At this autumn concert you will hear some of Haliburton's most appreciated artists such as Julie Hunter, Nancy Robichaud, Marilyn Stouffer, Rick Vaughan as well as the Highland Dixie Band and the St. George's Gospel Choir. Also, you will see a short film of a self-help project in an Indian village (India).

These artists will be performing in aid of self-help projects being funded by Haliburton's newly formed H.A.V.E. Committee. Currently the committee is funding the construction of a chapel, and the digging of a well in the village of Ibrahimpuram, near Hyderabad, India. The Committee is also involved with the sponsorship of needy children, and a senior citizen within villages.

Since there will be no admission charge, donations to the H.A.V.E. Committee's projects will be collected at this special concert. Refreshments will be sold. All proceeds of the evening will be forwarded, via The Christian Aid, to the Word Ministries of India (Hyderabad) where 100% of the funds are being used directly for the respective projects.

Hi kids!

Here is another puzzle for you. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters.

It's as easy as that. Have fun.

I shot an arrow into the air
It fell to earth, I know not where,
For, so swiftly it flew, the sight
Could not follow in its flight.

I breathed a song into the air
It fell to earth, I know not where
For who has sight so keen and strong
That it can follow the flight of song.

Long, long afterward in an oak
I found an arrow, still unbroken
And the song, from beginning to end
I found again in the heart of a friend.

IN MEMORIAM

BUNKER, Olive Audrey - In cherished memory of a special "Mom" and "Grandma" who passed away October 28, 1978.

There is a gift in life you cannot buy
That is very rare and true
It's the gift of wonderful memories
Like the ones we have of you.
Not a day do we forget you
In our hearts you're always near,
As we loved you so we miss you
As it dawns another year.

Forever with love - daughters, Faye, Caroline, Joyce, Joanne and sons, Jack, Harry and their families.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all the people involved in bestowing upon me the honour of being "Highlander of the Year". Ken, a special thanks for nominating me, this is an honour I will cherish forever. Thanks also to all my friends for their support in various ways over the years and for your cards and gifts of congrats. Again, thanks to all.
